

Jewellery / Friday, 29th December 2017 / Lot 256

LOT 256

A Victorian silver and vari-coloured agate brooch, designed as a fouled anchor, unmarked, probably Scottish mid-19th century, length 6.8cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

The central black agate is slightly raised from its setting and would benefit from re-positioning. There are one or two surface inclusions to the agates. Otherwise in good condition. Weight 18g.

Created: Thu, 14th December 2017 13:34