

LOT 426

A late Victorian cast brass and painted pottery floor standing Hinks oil lamp, the reeded stem on a scrolling tripod base, height 138cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

The font has discoloured, presumably through the heat from the lamp. There are not cracks or chips to the pottery, however the reservoir has been drilled through its base to accommodate wiring. Otherwise in good condition.