

Furniture / Friday, 29th December 2017 / Lot 804

LOT 804

A 19th century teak and brass bound naval officer's trunk, the ends with rope carrying handles, bearing maker's stamp 'J.M. Edmond, Calcutta', one end inscribed 'Linzee', raised on sledge supports, height 46cm, width 79cm, depth 43cm. Note: the Linzee family of naval officers included Samuel Hood Linzee (1773-1820), who commanded HMS Nemesis, Zealous and Warrior during the Napoleonic wars.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

There are some fairly typical areas of historic damage to the corners of the base and edges of the trunk. Overall old scuffs and marks. The front left corner of the lid has a repaired let-in section of wood. Otherwise good colour and in good order.

Created: Thu, 14th December 2017 14:47