LOT 741

Indian School - Falconry Scene, and Lady in a Temple, watercolour and gouache recto and verso of a single leaf, 11cm x 12.5cm, within a gilt frame.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Appears to have been reduced in size. Line borders appear contemporary but are likely to have been subsequently applied. Some scuffing to surface, most evident to the tree and trap on the falconry scene as well as to the borders. Crease to one corner. Some minor surface dirt and light browning. Frame with some scuffs and scratches, also it has been repainted gilt at some stage. Therefore would probably warrant replacing.
