

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 29th December 2017 / Lot 508

LOT 508

A 19th century Tibetan carved hardwood phurba, the handle decorated with three masks, the central shaft with carved knot and foliate bands above a tapering three-sided blade, retaining traces of red pigment, length 21.5cm (lacking one side of the blade).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

General surface wear and some surface wear to tip where it has been placed in the marble stand. As catalogued the section of blade is missing, as well as the small section just above the blade.

Created: Fri, 15th December 2017 11:29