

Decorative Pictures / Friday, 29th December 2017 / Lot 666

LOT 666

British Primitive School - Studies of Prize Cattle, two oils on canvas, 44.5cm x 67cm and 44.5cm x 68cm, both within gilt composition frames.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Brown and white cow - scratch to surface running down from cow's ear with associated paint loss. Some splatters of emulsion or similar paint to surface. Light soiling and general surface dirt throughout. Stain to top-right corner, possibly a result of old overpainting. Some craquelure and stretcher lines showing through. Frame crudely restored and repainted 'gilt', top left corner with large section missing from edge, inner slip a little loose. Pale brown cow - small scratch to cow's belly leading to a small hole with associated indentation. One very small area of paint loss to the bottom edge, minor craquelure. Considerable surface dirt throughout. Some possible touches of overpainting. Frame crudely restored and repainted 'gilt', canvas and inner slip a little loose.

Created: Thu, 28th December 2017 11:03