

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 29th December 2017 / Lot 401

LOT 401

A late 19th century Swiss Black Forest carved walnut model of a hiking hare, holding a satchel and a sack over his shoulder, inset with glass eyes and raised on a canted rectangular base, inscribed 'Souvenir de Fontainebleau', the underside bearing paper label, height 21.5cm. Note: this model is illustrated in 'Swiss Carvings, The Art of the 'Black Forest' 1820-1940' by Jay Arenski, Simon Daniels and Michael Daniels, page 65cm.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

In overall good condition with very few faults. The right ear has a repaired break and there is a very minor hairline crack to the centre of the base.

Created: Thu, 28th December 2017 12:47