

Silver and Plate / Friday, 29th December 2017 / Lot 36

LOT 36

A George III silver wine funnel with reeded rim, ovoid bowl and tapering spout, the detachable pierced strainer with applied hook, London 1807 by Solomon Hougham, length 14.5cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

Overall body and strainer is in generally good condition with a few very minor dents and typical light surface scratches and wear. Marks readable but slightly rubbed. The end of the spout has been clipped/reduced where it was probably damaged. Weight 152g.

Created: Thu, 28th December 2017 15:11