LOT 1511

A Masons ironstone china oval platter, early 19th century, decorated with an Oriental scene of four female figures in a landscape within a floral rim, printed factory mark to base, length 43cm, together with another similarly decorated Masons ironstone china oval platter, length 43cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1511. First platter - crazed and with considerable scratches and wear overall, two figures details almost obliterated with areas of intense wear/scratching. There probably should have been a gilt rim originally. Some light staining to crazing predominantly to centre of platter. Second platter - in similar condition to the first, again considerable scratches and wear overall but most prominent to centre of platter with enamel flaking and intense areas of scratching/wear.
