Condition Report

2019. The top has a few small areas of loss to the veneer. Some veneer cracking and lifting to the interior surface. A few areas of minor loss to the edges of the carved flowers on the legs. Overall slightly over cleaned and uneven polish to base. It also has a slight lean to one side probably due to the castors not sitting straight. The central stem appears to have had some historical treated and filled worm damage but not apparent anywhere else on the table.
