LOT 2008

An 18th century and later oak side table, fitted with two frieze drawers, on turned legs united by an undertier, height 77cm, width 94cm, depth 48cm (alterations).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2008. The overall appearance and condition is good, however, there is a small crack in the front left corner of the top and overall minor scuffs and marks. It is a richer mid-oak colour than the photo suggests. No apparent woodworm and a few minor cracks around joints. Whilst there are some 18th century elements to the table it appears to have been made with some later parts also.
