LOT 2579

A late 19th century cast brass novelty pen wipe, modelled in the form of an owl, length 14cm, together with a Victorian brass letter holder, the front with applied owl mask and inset with turquoise, and two early 20th century Father Christmas chocolate moulds, heights 21cm and 19cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

2579. The pen wipe has slight opening to the seam on its back and one of its legs is slightly bent and split, otherwise surface wear overall. The owl letter holder is missing three of its turquoise mounts and has had the back panels repaired, also the plinth is a bit misshapen around the rim. The moulds are in fair condition with minor wear.
