LOT 2421

A 19th century papier-mâché circular snuff box, the removable lid painted with an inscribed comical scene of Napoleon Bonaparte, diameter 9cm, together with another 19th century papier-mâché snuff box, painted with a coastal shipwreck scene, diameter 10cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2421. Some overall minor surface scratches to the top of the Napoleon box. A small crack and a few minor repairs to the lip of the base. The shipwreck box has had some repairs around the edges of the lid but neither appear to have had overpainting to the lid. Both lids are fairly tight and appear to be original.
