

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 25th January 2018 / Lot 1110

LOT 1110

An early 20th century spelter mystery timepiece, the brass cased movement with integral pendulum, the white enamel dial with black Arabic numerals and detailed 'J' (Junghans), supported by a scantily clad standing maiden, on an oak circular plinth, height 37.5cm, together with a similar mystery timepiece, supported by a spelter boy fruit picker, height 36cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1110. Neither clock works. Both figures and stand in generally good order. One dial discoloured, the other dial has a detached minute hand.

Created: Tue, 23rd January 2018 11:02