

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thu, 22nd February 2018 / Lot 1461

LOT 1461

A large terracotta Attic style two-handled potpourri vase and cover, mid-19th century, the high shouldered black ground body with banded stylized foliate and gilded decoration beneath gilt branch handles, the pierced cover with branch finial, unmarked, height 58cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1461. Vase - approx 4.5cm long x 2cm deep painted over chip to exterior base edge and fritted smaller chipping to overall circumference of base edge which is fairly inconsequential. Cover - two approx 1cm long chips to edge and inconsequential nibbles around edges of pierced holes. Slight manufacturers blemish amidst one section of pierced holes. Slight manufacturers blemishes overall which are characteristic with production and decoration of the vase.

Created: Wed, 14th February 2018 15:48