

Jewellery / Wed, 21st February 2018 / Lot 515

LOT 515

A white gold, diamond and emerald pendant necklace of curved panel form with foliate sides and a tied ribbon bow surmount, mounted with a central drop shaped emerald bead beneath a row of calibre cut emeralds, otherwise set with circular cut diamonds, on an oval link neckchain with a sprung hook shaped clasp, detailed '750', length of pendant 4.8cm, total emerald weight approx 0.50ct, total diamond weight approx 0.65ct, together with a pair of emerald and diamond pendant earrings in a matching design, each with a drop shaped emerald bead and a circular cut diamond set two stone surmount, with post and butterfly fittings, detailed '750', length 2.3cm, with a case.

Estimate: £400 - £500

Condition Report

515. Cut: drop emerald with round cut diamonds and square cut emeralds. Colour/Clarity: diamonds are bright, white and sparkly, faint to medium fluorescence on average. In good condition. It is possibly that one of the calibre cut emeralds of the pendant has been re-set at one end. It is detailed at the back of the pendant '750'. Pendant necklace - weight 6.7g. Earrings - weight 1.6g.

515. Relatively modern pendant.

Created: Wed, 21st February 2018 13:18