

Silver and Plate / Wed, 21st February 2018 / Lot 315

LOT 315

A late Victorian silver coffee pot with domed hinged lid and flower bud finial above a tapering body, decorated in relief with opposing scroll cartouche against a hammered ground, flanked by a scroll handle and hammered scroll spout, London 1900 by Holland, Aldwinckle & Slater, height 24.5cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

315. Overall good condition. No significant damage or repairs. Hallmarks are good and clear. The cartouche on one side has an engraving. Weight 1046g.

Created: Thu, 15th February 2018 16:58