

Silver and Plate / Wed, 21st February 2018 / Lot 454

LOT 454

A Queen Anne silver dog nose spoon, the bowl back with rat tail, the terminal back prick-dot engraved 'D' over 'P*A', the stem with engraved inscription 'It Donum ... a mile for a million 1702', London 1702 by William Matthew I, length 19.3cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

454. Overall generally good condition. Marks are rubbed but readable. Engraved inscription to front is worn but still just about readable. Typical light surface scratches and wear and a couple of small shallow dents to the bowl but nothing of any great significance.

Created: Fri, 16th February 2018 12:07