

Silver and Plate / Wed, 21st February 2018 / Lot 366

LOT 366

A late Victorian plated three bottle tantalus of rectangular form, fitted with three square cut glass decanters and stoppers, and three plated decanter labels, comprising 'Gin', 'Brandy' and 'Whiskey', height 32cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

366. No significant damage or repairs but the plate is worn on top and sides. There is not an original key but a clock key we have with it does just about open it. All three decanters are intact but all have numerous small chips around the bases and stoppers.
