

Prints and Maps / Wed, 21st February 2018 / Lot 72

LOT 72

Fred Arthur Farrell - Construction of a Bridge on the Thames, early 20th century etching, signed in pencil, 21cm x 37cm, within a stained wood frame, together with another etching by the same hand.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

72. Bridge - light browning throughout. Some spotting. Mount and backing are not archival and thus would warrant replacing. Oak frame with minor splatters of emulsion and light scuffs. Unexamined out of frame. Coast - considerable browning, inconsistent to right hand side. Minor detritus to surface. Mount and backing are not archival and thus would warrant replacing. Oak frame with minor scuffs. Unexamined out of frame.

Created: Fri, 16th February 2018 13:27