

Antiquarian and Collectors' Books / Tue, 20th February 2018 / Lot 3015

LOT 3015

LEPIDOPTERA. - J.G. WOOD. The Common Moths of England. London: George Routledge & Sons, [n.d. but 1870]. First edition, 8vo (186 x 130mm.) Colour frontispiece, 10 coloured plates. (Spotting to first and last few leaves including frontispiece, plate 5 has a name in ink.) Original red cloth, blocked in black and gilt (some wear to top of spine). - And eighteen other volumes on British Lepidoptera (19).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

3015. The dust-jackets of 'British Moths' are price-clipped but well preserved. A few books neatly name inscribed. Very attractive illustrated gilt covers to first four volumes. All with firm hinges.

Created: Mon, 19th February 2018 14:48