

Antiquarian and Collectors' Books / Tue, 20th February 2018 / Lot 3018

LOT 3018

CLEGG, John. The Freshwater Life of the British Isles. London & New York: Frederick Warne & Co., 1952. First edition, signed by the author in ink to the front-free endpaper, small 8vo (174 x 132mm.) Colour frontispiece. Original green cloth covers, blocked in black and gilt, dust-jacket with mounted colour plate. - And seven other volumes (including Edward Step, 'Bees, Wasps, Ants...', 1952, first edition, small 8vo, dust-jacket) (8).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

3018. The book is signed by the author on the front-free endpaper in ink. There is very faint spotting to the spine of the jacket. Minimal shelf wear to spine ends. Very well preserved jacket and internally too. The 'Seas' have price-clipped dust-jackets and some spotting to fore-edge, otherwise very well preserved. 'Pyralid & Plume' is also price-clipped, as is 'Bees, Wasps, Ants' which is also name inscribed. Minor chipping to one jacket, otherwise a well preserved set.

Created: Mon, 19th February 2018 14:44