

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 22nd February 2018 / Lot 1130

LOT 1130

A Chinese famille rose porcelain vase, mark of Qianlong but Republic period, the swollen cylindrical body painted with a continuous scene of two separate peninsulas, each inhabited by a boy and elder with pavilion, pine trees and rocks, divided by meandering water with sailing boats and cloud swathed mountains beyond, the short flared neck with polychrome enamelled ruyi-head rim, the base with polychrome lappit band above a blue keyfret footrim, iron red four character mark to base, height 26cm (restoration to rim).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1130. The rim and neck have restoration, otherwise the vase is in good condition.

Created: Mon, 19th February 2018 13:18