

Silver and Plate / Wed, 21st February 2018 / Lot 453

LOT 453

A late 17th century silver lace back trefid spoon, the bowl back with Rat Tail and scrolls, indistinct hallmarks to back of stem, length 22.3cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

453. The spoon is badly worn. The bowl is fairly thin and relief decoration to back of bowl is almost completely worn away. Marks are worn and indistinct. Trefid top also badly worn. One side of label is inscribed 'Eli Bilton Newcastle 1694', other side 'Intermediate Trefid 1694 1694 ? Eli Bilton Newcastle Mary ♦ 175'.

Created: Mon, 19th February 2018 16:35