

Fine Art / Wednesday, 21st March 2018 / Lot 50

LOT 50

Edward Ardizzone - Boy Shooting Arrows at Birds and a Fish (Illustration for 'Three Tall Tales by James Reeves'), pen and ink, 30cm x 31.5cm, within a Hogarth style frame, together with a proof lithograph with hand-colouring and a hardback book. Provenance: Cambridge Book and Print Gallery, October 2006.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

50. Pen and ink - generally in good condition. Two stains from previous adhesive tape. Light browning or age toning but nothing serious. Mount and backing may not be archival. Some mould to mount and detritus trapped beneath glass. Frame with some scuffs and chips to frame. Coloured print - generally in good condition. Minor detritus between mount and glass. Book - Ex library with usual stamps. Heavy soiling and browning throughout. Dust jacket with spotting, soiling and browning. Adhesive 'protector' yellowed and chipped.

Created: Sat, 17th March 2018 09:41