

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1564

LOT 1564

A Jacob Petit porcelain inkstand, mid-19th century, of shaped rectangular form with relief scroll detail, painted with flowers against a gilt overlaid pink ground, the black glazed top with two pen apertures and a removable inkwell and pounce pot, underglaze blue factory mark to base, height 12cm (faults), together with a Continental porcelain cobalt blue ground scent bottle and stopper (faults and repairs), and a Dresden porcelain watering can.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1564. Watering can - faint approx 2cm long hairline to top by filling aperture and one rosebud here not finished properly.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 09:22