LOT 396

A plated golf inkstand, the centre mounted with the figure of a golfer in mid-swing, flanked by two golf ball inkwells, on a rectangular base with rounded ends, engraved with bamboo and grasses within a bamboo effect rim, raised on scroll legs, height 16cm (alterations).

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

396. Gold inkstand is 'made-up' as we do not believe the golfer and ball inkwells started life with the bamboo moulded base. Otherwise it is a nice decorative inkstand in generally good condition. There is a small spot of lead solder beside the golfer's right foot which is above the fastening nut below. The gold club is later. Variety of washers and nuts used underneath to secure.
