

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1402

LOT 1402

A silver mounted Doulton Lambeth stoneware jug, circa 1880, of tapered cylindrical form, decorated by Francis E. Lee, monogrammed, with a repeating pattern of stylized flowers between beaded borders, the mounts hallmarked Sheffield 1880 by Henry Atkin, impressed and incised factory marks to base, height 24cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

1402. Minor narrow chip to top edge of footrim beneath handle, one bead missing (probably from manufacture) along from here. Maker's mark on silver rim rubbed.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 09:48