

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1443

LOT 1443

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware jug commemorating the Coronation of King Edward VII, decorated in relief with portrait roundels of Edward VII and Queen Alexandra, impressed factory marks to base, height 18.5cm, together with a Royal Doulton stoneware tyg commemorating the Coronation of King George V, decorated in relief with portrait roundels of George V and Queen Mary, impressed factory marks to base, height 16.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1443. Tyg - minute glaze nick to top rim edge - more easily felt than seen. Otherwise in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Jug - small spot of scratches beneath spout, otherwise in good condition. No chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 10:13