

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1491

LOT 1491

A Moorcroft pottery banded Pomegranate pattern vase, circa 1920s, the waisted cylindrical body with green banded detail against a blue ground, impressed Cobridge factory mark and blue painted initials to base, height 17.5cm, together with a Liberty & Co Moorcroft pottery Grape pattern plate, diameter 16.5cm (both restored).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1491. Vase - area of professional restoration to neck rim. Typical crazing to glaze. Plate - looks as though it has been in a number of pieces and professionally restored. Crazing visible to the original remaining glaze.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 10:37