

Art Pottery / Friday, 23rd March 2018 / Lot 4104

LOT 4104

A William de Morgan pottery vase, circa 1888-1897, of urn form with narrow neck, decorated by Joe Juster with a Persian foliate design in blue, green and turquoise, impressed Sand's End wing mark and painted 'JJ' decorator's initials and numbered '2289' to base, height 21.5cm (chipped to rim).

Estimate: £600 - £900

Condition Report

4104. The rim has one considerable chip that is clearly obvious and a small glaze chip on the opposite edge, as well as some very minor fritting around the rim. Otherwise a few very small glaze nicks to the shoulder of the vase.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 11:22