

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1449

LOT 1449

An engraved glass goblet, circa 1838, the bell shaped bowl engraved with a bird hovering above hops and barley flanking an 'EH' monogram, raised on a hollow knopped stem enclosing a fourpence coin above the stepped circular foot, height 16.5cm, together with a similar goblet with engraved inscription to 'C. Covery Esq Lieut Adjutant 68th L.J.', and two other engraved goblets (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

1449. Coin stem goblet - a square shape has been quite deeply and badly scratched into the hollow knop of the stem enclosing the coin, otherwise in good condition with light surface scratches. Lieut Adjutant engraved glass - good condition. Other 2 glasses - both in good order overall, light wear particularly to gilding.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 11:25