

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1556

LOT 1556

A group of Royal Doulton Dutch Harlem series ware, 20th century, including a chamberstick, a pair of candlesticks, four boxes and covers and a vase, together with a group of Royal Doulton New Cavalier series ware, including a tankard and rectangular shaped sandwich plate.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1556. Dutch Chamberstick - heavily crazed but ok. Pin dish - minor scratch but ok. Candlestick - broken in 2 at stem and glued. Crazed and with haircracks. Candlestick - crazed. Enamel flaking to rim edges. Square plate - ok. 2 dinner plates - one crazed with minor scratches to rim. Other ok but with spots of wear. Vase - light scratches but ok. Tall square pot and cover - minor chip to rim, cover crazed. 3 short square pots and covers - each ok. Rectangular tray - ok, minor manufacturing blemish to green ground. Cavalier 2 tankards - light crazing but ok. Candlestick - crazed but ok. Tall square pot and cover - light crazing. Glued repair to corner of cover. 2 short square pots and covers - each piece crazed but ok. Light staining to underside of one cover. Rectangular tray - crazed with light staining and chip to rim.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 11:36