

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1462

LOT 1462

A Wedgwood majolica Egyptian Revival biscuit barrel and cover with plated mounts, circa 1870s, the brown and green glazed tapered cylindrical body with coopered plated bands, raised on rams head feet beneath an overhead swing handle with Egyptian head motifs, the plated cover with sphinx finial, indistinct impressed mark to base, height to top of handle 23cm (restored).

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1462. The pottery body is restored with an approx 1/3 section broken away in at least 3 pieces. Overall crazing to glaze, light staining visible to base. Typical rubbing to mounts.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 14:14