

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1435

LOT 1435

A crackle glass effect lemonade jug, late 19th century, of baluster form with ice reservoir, flanked by a ropetwist handle terminating in two roundels, height 28.5cm, together with a similar jug of tapering form, with ribbed loop handle, height 17.5cm.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1435. Smaller jug cracked. Large jug ok.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 16:14