

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1447

LOT 1447

Four Monteith type bonnet glasses, second half 18th century, each with ogee honeycomb moulded bowl on a conical foot, together with a large group of mostly 18th century and 19th century glasses, including a pair of engraved jelly glasses, a tumbler, engraved 'Fidelite', and various faceted and moulded detail glasses (some with faults).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1447. Monteith - some polishing to feet and surface abrasions. Conical dram with folded foot - ok. Remaining pieces generally ok but with typical small damage/polishing.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 16:17