

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1452

LOT 1452

A Nailsea glass double gimmel flask, first half 19th century, the twin flasks of typical flattened teardrop shape with white combed decoration and trailed sides beneath blue edged rims, length 18cm, a similar double flask with dark red and blue speckled decoration, and five other gimmel flasks, three with combed decoration.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1452. Plain clear example quite scratched, otherwise generally in good order. Light surface wear.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 16:17