

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1475

LOT 1475

A small group of five glass rolling pins, late 19th century, including a Nailsea example with pink and white combed detail, one with speckled white and blue detail and a soda glass truncheon, lengths ranging from 24cm to 43cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1475. Typical surface wear, chipped pontils, but generally in good order throughout.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 16:23