

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1476

LOT 1476

A clear glass jug, mid-19th century, with engraved inscription 'Happy have we been, Happy are we now, The Lord send us good Harvest, And God speed the plough' above harvest motifs, including a basket of wheat and two horses pulling a cart, surrounded by fruiting vines, height 27cm, together with two milchglass polychrome enamel tankards and a group of other mostly cut glass (some faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1476. Harvest jug - riveted repair to handle. 2 milchglass tankards - both badly broken and visibly restored. 2 other jugs - both with repaired handles. Remainder generally ok but sections of other objects.

Created: Tue, 20th March 2018 16:24