

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 22nd March 2018 / Lot 1417

LOT 1417

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware biscuit barrel and cover with flower finial, late 19th/early 20th century, the tapering body and cover decorated in relief with vertical panels of blue daisies and green scrolling leaves alternating with buff vertical panels impressed with scattered flowers, impressed factory marks and incised 'FM' to base, height 14.5cm, together with another Doulton Lambeth stoneware biscuit barrel and cover, decorated in relief with floral motifs and tubelined with bands of flowers and scrolls, impressed factory marks to base, height 14cm (restoration to cover).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1417. Vertical panel decoration - in good condition overall. A few very inconsequential tiny nicks to top rim edge of barrel and edge of cover. Relief medallion decoration - cover professionally restored. Some professional restoration to rim of barrel and minor rubbing to relief decoration.

Created: Thu, 22nd March 2018 10:18