LOT 598

A rose cut diamond set bar brooch, centred by a lyre between foliate sides, circa 1900, width 3.8cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

598. The diamonds look to be attractive white stones with one or two internal inclusions. The setting is silver fronted and gold backed. The piece would benefit from careful professional cleaning as the silver is rather tarnished. Otherwise in generally good condition. No visible marks. Weight 3.3g.
