

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1457

LOT 1457

A 'Vienna' porcelain figure of the Racegoer, mid-19th century, modelled after the Meissen original as a gentleman holding a spyglass to his eye, raised on a gilt enriched scroll moulded naturalistic base, impressed and blue painted marks to base, height 19cm (minor restoration).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1457. Restoration to sword length, chain and hilt, missing end of sword. Left thumb restored and missing cane from his hand. Right arm professionally restored from shoulder down, including spyglass.

Created: Thu, 12th April 2018 11:31