

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1529

LOT 1529

An Art Nouveau iridescent glazed pottery vase, probably Continental circa 1900, of gently tapered cylindrical shape, the pale golden washed body with a cell or crocodile skin like pattern overlaid with purple/blue washed iridescent strapwork with claw terminals, the rim applied with oval red cabochons and four insect leg type handles, indistinct incised numerals to base '1137?', height 21.5cm (missing one cabochon).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1529. In good condition overall, no chips, cracks or repairs. Missing one red cabochon. There is overall fine indistinct crazing to the glaze and typical light rubbing to the gilt decoration. There are some burst air bubbles to the glaze surface as a result of the manufacturing process, only noticeable on close inspection.

Created: Thu, 12th April 2018 11:34