Condition Report

1473. We have been through the service very carefully. It is in very good condition - some of the pieces don't look as though they have been used. The gilding shows no wear. There are some typical very light knife scratches to some of the platters and plates but nothing untoward. Two of the soup bowls have insignificant little nicks to the floral finials of the covers, similarly the finial of the sugar bowl. Circular tureen & cover - height 19.5cm, width 27.5cm, depth 20cm.

1473. The set was purchased at Sotheby's in London by the family of the current owner and some of the original lot stickers remain.
