

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1424

LOT 1424

A Limoges porcelain part dessert service, circa 1900, painted with flowers against a pale lemon ground within raised scroll rims heightened with gilding, comprising eight plates, an oval dish, a square dish and a circular dish, green printed and red painted factory marks to bases, diameter of plates 22cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1424. Square dish - long chip to interior of footrim spanning approx 3cm. Circular dish - small chip to rim, showing on surface and underside. Plates - one plate with tiny nick to interior rim and two small chips to underside of rim, one with associated faint hairline. Overall in good condition, otherwise only very minor gilt losses to high points of rims.

Created: Fri, 13th April 2018 15:54