

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1487

LOT 1487

An Art Deco Royal Doulton part service, circa 1930, decorated with polychrome honesty beneath black rims, comprising a sandwich tray, six square tea plates, five coffee cans and saucers, a sugar bowl and a cream jug, together with a Burleigh 'Fragrance' pattern part coffee service, a Crown Devon John Peel musical jug, two Wadeheath jugs and a Carlton Ware vase (some faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1487. Doulton service - four coffee cans crazed. Other pieces with some minor losses to enamel decoration, but no chips, cracks or repairs. Burleigh service - one cup crazed, another with minor glaze flake/loss to top of handle. All saucers heavily crazed, coffee pot with chips to footrim and crazed. Wadeheath jugs - both heavily crazed, one with minor short haircrack to rim. Crown Devon jug - crazed and cracked. Carlton Ware vase - crazed but other in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Fri, 13th April 2018 15:59