

British and Continental Ceramics and Glass / Thursday, 19th April 2018 / Lot 1509

LOT 1509

A group of T.G. Green blue banded Cornish Kitchen Ware, mid-20th century and later, comprising three breakfast cups and six saucers, six tea plates, a small plate, a soup plate, a jug and a mug, each with green shield mark to bases, a flour sifter and a sugar sifter with black target mark to bases, and a group of similar wares (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1509. T.G. Green wares: Three tea plates - good condition Soup plate - good condition Four saucers - good condition Tea, coffee and sugar jars - good condition, however the covers no longer appear to be airtight Sugar & flour sifters - good condition, however the covers no longer appear to be airtight. Remaining items have faults.

Created: Fri, 13th April 2018 16:01