

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 18th April 2018 / Lot 420

LOT 420

A silver and silver gilt interlocking chess set, designed by Cy Endfield, from a limited edition of 650, the FIDE official chess set commemorating the 1972 legendary chess battle between Bobby Fischer and Boris Spassky, each piece interlocking to form two cylinders, with a silver mounted folding chess board, London 1972 by Cy Endfield, cased and boxed. Note: Cyril Raker Endfield was a film director, magician and inventor best known for directing the film Zulu.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

420. Overall good condition, light tarnish so would benefit from a clean. No apparent signature to either cylinder. Cardboard box is present but split to edges and tatty. There is a clear plastic sleeve to both inner cylinders.

Created: Sat, 14th April 2018 10:40