

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 18th April 2018 / Lot 701

LOT 701

A 19th century French model 1822 light cavalry sabre, number 1324, with curved steel double fullered blade, length 92cm, marked with place of manufacture and dated 1875, brass triple bar hilt and leather covered wire bound grip, in its steel scabbard, also numbered 1324, with leather sword knot, together with a book 'Swords In Colour' by Robert Wilkinson-Latham.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

701. The blade seems to fit nicely with the hilt and glides nicely with the sheath.

Created: Sat, 14th April 2018 11:23