

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 18th April 2018 / Lot 359

LOT 359

A late Victorian silver novelty playing card case in the form of a sedan chair with domed hinged lid revealing two compartments, decorated with lattice panels and foliate scrolls, London 1900 by Samuel Jacob, height 9.5cm.

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

359. Good clean condition, no significant damage or repairs. Good clear hallmarks. Relief decoration is good and crisp. Hinge is good.

Created: Sat, 14th April 2018 11:48